- Q Whereabouts? A Lynch's saloon, on the corner of Eleventh Avenue and 37th Street.
- Q Was anything said or done there between you and him?

 A Nothing more than -- we had a friendly drink together.
- Q And then what happened? A In that saloon I saw a woman there, in the private entrance there; she appeared to be in an intoxicated condition, and I asked Mr. Walsh to have a drink, and Mr. Kelly to have a drink, trying to make trade there, I being a new person around there.

THE COURT: Strike that out.

THE COURT: Strike that out, unless it was said in the presence of the defendant.

Q Now, when did you see Walsh next? A At 2 o'clock in the morning, there was a rap came at the door, and I was called by my first name. I opened the door, supposing it to be somebody --

THE COURT: Strike out what the witness supposed.

Q Just say what you saw? A I opened the door, when I was taken by the throat and choked into insensibility.

MR. COHEN: I ask that that be stricken out.

THE COURT: That he was choked until he became insensible? I do not see what that should not stand. I do not think that he can testify that the insensibility was produced by the choking, but I think he can testify that he became insensible.

With that qualification I allow it.

Q Gp on. A I was then taken up, and taken to the washstand, and the blood washed off my face. I had evidently been assaulted --

THE COURT: Strike out that he had evidently been.

 A While I was being washed off I saw Mr. Walsh leaving the room at the time.

THE COURT: Strike that out.

THE WITNESS: (Continuing) Very soon after that,

I don't know at what time it was, a police officer came in to see whether I had been assaulted. He found my condition, and he left me --

THE COURT: Strike out everything except that the police officer came. The jury is instructed to disregard it.

- O A police officer came in? A Yes, and saw my condition
- Q Do not say what he saw. He came in, and after he came

- Q Now, what sort of lock is that? A I don't know what kind of a lock it is.
- Q Well, are you sure you locked the door after you and this woman came in? A I am positive.
- Q What would make you so positive? A I have never left it open before or since.
- Q Is that the only reason? A Yes, sir, that's the only reason, and nobody entered that door or left it after I closed it.
 - Q Well, you and the woman came into your store? A Yes.
- Q Now, is there any reason, except the fact that you always locked that door, that would lead you to the conclusion that you positively locked the door that night? A Well, what reason could I say --

THE COURT: Now, counsel, wants to know whether you remember as a distinct fact that you did lock the door, after you came in, or whether you merely say now that you did lock it becaus you generally lock it.

A I say positively that I locked it.

BY MR. COHEN:

- Q Tell me the name of any person on the face of the earth that you would expect to call you at that hour? A In New York City?
- Q Yes. A Well, I haven't any idea who would call me at that hour.

- Q And you had just been awakened from your sleep?

 A Yes, sir.
- Q Now, will you swear it was not the woman that grabbed you by the throat? A I am positive it was not the woman.
- Q Why; because why? A Because she was behind me; she could not come in front of me.
 - Q She was a large woman? A She appeared about my size.
- Q Well, did she appear to be a strong woman?

 A No, sir.
- Q You say the fact that she was behind -- A (Interrupting) I am positive she did not grab me by the throat.

- Q You remember that the defendant was there also?

 A Yes, sir.
- Q Don't you remember that she said that Walsh had nothing to do with it? A I do, indeed.

- Q Don't you remember that she said that Walsh was not there when it happened? A That is what I remember.
 - O. Have you tried to find this woman? A No, sir.
- Now, the only thing you know about Walsh is this, that while you were being washed off, or when you were recovering from your unconscious condition, Walsh was there helping to wash you off? A I did not see him helping me at all. I saw him leave the room, that's all.
- Q Through which door? A Through the rear door.

 BY THE COURT:
- Q And that was how long after you had been grabbed by the throat? A Well, immediately after I became conscious.
 - Q You do not know how long you were unconscious?

A No, sir.

- Q And your best opinion now is that it was Walsh?

 A Yes, sir.
 - Q You are not sure? A I am sure.
 - Q Why? A Because I knew the man.
- Q You knew the man? A Yes, I had seen him in the evening, and knew him as a customer.
 - Q You say you did not have your clothes on? A I did not.
- Q How far away from you was he when you were leaving the room? A As far as you are.

 BY THE COURT:
 - Q But you had not recognized his face in the hall?

BY MR . COHEN:

- Q. What is that? A There were two voices calling me by my first name.
- Q When you say he was as far as I am from you, would you say the distance of 15 feet? A I don't know.
- Q Well, is it 15 feet from you to where I am?

 A I don't know.
- Q Well, what is your best opinion; is it about 15 feet?

 A I don't know.
 - Q Well, is it 10 feet? A 10.
- Q Will you stick to that, that this man was about that distance away from you when you identified him as Walsh?

 A Yes, about 10 feet.
 - Q That was in this rear room? A Yes.
- Q How large is that rear room? A Well, I imagine it is about 12 by 15; something like that.
- Q So that, he was very nearly the entire space of the room away from you? A Yes.
- Q And the mere fact -- you did not get a good look at his face at all? A I did not see the front of his face.
- Q And although you did not see the front of his face, and although he was 15 feet away from you, and you had just been recovering from unconsciousness, you are willing to swear that this man that went out was this man Walsh? A I said he was about 10 feet away from me.

Q You remember when you came before the Police Court, do you? A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember who had been cross examined by Colonel
Townsend, who appeared for this man in the Police Court?

A Yes, sir.

Q Do you remember that the officer had a conversation with you, in which he called your attention to the fact that you should have identified Walsh as one of the defendants?

A That he said to me?

Q Didn't he say to you "Why didn't you identify Walsh as one of these defendants"? A No, he did not say that.

Q What did he say to you? A He said to me "You did not say that you were certain when you are, that you saw Walsh".

Q The officer said to you "You did not say you were certain it was Walsh when you are certain"? A "When you told me you were certain".

Q Yes, you had told the officer you were certain it was Walsh? A Yes.

Q When you went to the Police Court you were not certain?

A Upon cross examination of the attorney, and my first experience in court, I was confused.

MR. COHEN: I ask to strike that out.

THE COURT: You are asking him why he was not certain, and he is telling you.

- Q Tell us why you said to the officer; just give the explanation you were about to give? A What explanation?

 BY THE COURT:
- Q You were telling us why you were not certain?

 A I was certain, but the attorney putting questions to me in the manner he did, he had me confused in saying that I thought I was certain.

BY MR . COHEN:

- Q Well, what did he say now to you, that made you appear uncertain? A I can't recall just what he did say.
- Q He made you say, didn't he, that you only thought it was Walsh? A No, I did not say that. I said I thought I was certain.
- Q That is to say, you testified then that you thought you were certain? A Yes.
- Q Now, didn't you say positively in the Police Court that you would not say that that the defendant Walsh was the man?

 A I did not say that. To whom did I say that?
- Q I ask you now. Didn't you say to Magistrate Whitman at the Police Court, that you were not sure, and you would not swear that Walsh was the man? A That assaulted me?
 - Q Yes. A That assaulted me? Yes, I say so now.

Q Then, the only thing I understand, your testimony is, the only thing you are willing to swear to is that a man left your premises immediately after you returned to consciousness, that he was 10 to 12 or 15 feet away from you, and that that man you are willing to swear most positively was Walsh?

A Yes, sir.

Q Now, that is the whole story, isn't it? A That is the whole story.

Q And more than that regarding Walsh you do not know?

A No, sir.

Q And you do not know that Walsh is one of the men that assaulted you, do you? A No.

Q You do not mean to have the jury understand that Walsh is one of the men that assaulted you? A No, sir.

Q You do not know but what this woman had called from the street for help, and that Walsh came to her assistance or your assistance? A I don't think so. I am not sure, no.

Q Now, you remember that Walsh was taken to the Police Station? A Yes.

Q And you testified, what this woman said, that Walsh had nothing to do with it; you remember Walsh was searched?

A Yes.

Q And no watch and chain were found on Walsh, was there?

A No, sir.

巩膜器形

- Q Was there any money found on Walsh? A I don't think
- Q Were your trousers found near him or by him, or in any way connected with him at all? A These things were brought in from the hall by the officer.

- Q To identify Walsh? A To identify the prisoners, the defendants.
 - Q Were they both arrested at that time? A Yes.
- Q There was no knife found on this defendant, was there?

 A Yes, sir, I believe there was. I didn't see them searched.
- Q You do not know whether there was a knife or not?

 A I did not see the men searched.
- Q. This time that you were brought out to identify the defendants, how many minutes or hours was it after the assault?

 A I don't know.
- Q Was it an hour? A It was 3 o'clock at the Police Court, when I arrived there, and I suppose the assault had been an hour before. That is the only measure I had of the time.
- Q Well, was the front door opened, if you know, the front door of the barber shop, after the time you came in with this woman? A No, sir.

Q Do you know, or had you any reason to know whether it was or not? A It was not, unless it was opened while I was asleep.

- Q That is what I mean. I say, do you know positively?

 THE COURT: You have his answer, counsel.
- Q Did you walk in or out of that door at any time after that? A Not until 7 o'clock in the morning.

The Court admonished the jury in accordance with Section 415 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, and took a recess until 2:05 o'clock p.m.

Trial resumed.
